

Summary Report of The Flood Relief Activities Carried Out by 'QAU Flood Relief Cell'

(August 14, 2010 to September 10, 2010)

1. Funds Statement

i. Funds Collected till September 10, 2010:

Monetary Donations: 820,700 (eight hundred, twenty thousand & seven hundred)

Food Donations (including other kitchen items): 132,000 (one hundred and thirty two thousands)

We got a huge bulk of garments, household textiles and shoes. It consisted of more than 2000 suits, 40 pairs of shoe and few bed sheets / blankets. All were scrutinized by our volunteers (a group of 8 girls). After scrutiny they rejected almost 10 percent items and found that almost 20 percent suits / wearing sheets are unused*. The minimum estimated value of distributed garments, shoes and household textiles is more than one million.

Gross Value of all donations: 19,52,700 ( 1.9527 million rupees)

\ Later on the discarded stuff was also distributed in village Sanawan.*

ii. Expenditures till September 10, 2010:

Monetary Donations: 680,763 (six hundred, eighty thousands, seven and sixty three rupees)

Food Donations: 132,000 (one hundred and thirty two thousands)

Minimum Estimated value of distributed garments / household textiles: 1000,000 (one million rupees)

Gross Value of amount distributed: 1812,763 ( 1.812763 million rupees)

iii. Funds available with 'QAU Flood Relief Cell' on September 10, 2010:

4. The Working Body

- 'QAU Flood Relief Cell' was a joint venture of the students, Academic Staff Association and other employees of Quaid-i-Azam University, Islamabad.
- The working body of 'QAU Flood Relief' comprised of the current students and ex-students of Quaid-i-Azam University.
- Students of Economics, Electronics, Bio-chemistry, Animal Sciences, DSS, Statistics, Administrative Sciences, International Relations and Gender studies participated in relief activities under the umbrella of 'QAU Flood Relief Cell'

5. Formation of QAU Welfare Society

We appreciate the efforts of all who worked for 'QAU Flood Relief Cell'. It's the devotion of all volunteers that 'QAU Flood Relief Cell' successfully played its role to help out few victims of flood. We are grateful to our worthy Vice Chancellor, Dr M. Masoom Yasinzai who supported us in the noble cause. He was kind enough to provide us university busses for the collection of funds in Islamabad and for the distribution of goods in Charsada and Southern Punjab.

It's the encouragement of Honourable Vice Chancellor, support of all faculty members and motivation of students that we plan to continue our efforts by forming 'QAU Welfare Society'. The society shall work under the patronage of respected Vice Chancellor and its advisory board comprises of a group of teachers. It shall work for the welfare of its community on regular basis, such as financial assistantship to the needy students, blood donation in case of emergency, to work as volunteer in case of, Allah forbid, any natural disaster and to provide welfare services to its community.

6. Transfer of Funds to 'QAU Welfare Society'

As mentioned on page1 that 139,937 (one hundred, thirty nine thousands, nine hundred and thirty seven rupees) were unutilized by 'QAU Flood Relief Cell'. This amount is transferred in the bank account of 'QAU Welfare Society' (A/C: 02947900453203). Now we plan to use this amount for the financial assistantship of students belonging to flood affected families.

It is the beginning. Come forward, join us, we together can serve the sorrowful and deprived persons of our society.

Generosity Generates Good Society

Thanks.
