RAMZAN RELIEF CAMPAIGN - 2021

1. Executive Summary

In April 2021, QAU Welfare Society initiated “Ramzan Relief Campaign”, the idea was to provide ration bags to the deprived households. In this regard a call for donation was given through email and social media. We are thankful to our donors for their overwhelming response, Alhamdulillah donations of 5,08,000 rupees were received. These donations were spent on the purchase of goods and additional cost including packing, transportation and withholding tax was paid by QAU Welfare Society. Two hundred ration bags were distributed among the deprived households in five rounds.

2. Complete Report

The emergency disaster cell of QAU Welfare Society initiated a ration drive for the poor families. In this regard a fund-raising campaign was initiated in first week of April 2021. Our call for donations was well responded and we received enough donations from different individuals and in particular from the faculty and alumni of Quaid-i-Azam University. We are thankful to all donors for their support and trust.

The distribution of ration bags was mainly confined to the surroundings of Quaid-i-Azam university, however we also approached to Katcha Morr, a village of Hasan Abdal. It is to share that five consignments comprising of 200 ration bags worth 5,16,732 rupees were distributed among deserving households. It is pertinent to mention that withholding tax on banks withdrawals (3,082 rupees) and packing cost / transportation cost (5,860 rupees) was taken up by QAU Welfare Society and donations were merely used to purchase goods. Given below is a summary of all consignments.
